FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brooklyn Oenology Winery Reception for Artist Sonomi Kobayashi Solo Show and 2010 Chardonnay Wine Release

Williamsburg, NY – Brooklyn Oenology Winery ('EN-ology, or simply 'BOE'), a locally-focused winery which presents the work of Brooklyn artists on its bottle labels, is pleased to announce a solo show of work by artist Sonomi Kobayashi, whose 2008 image 'Synchronicity #11' is featured on BOE's release of 2010 Chardonnay.

Brooklyn Oenology's new 2010 Chardonnay has a golden color with old-world flavors of quince, pear, mandarin, coconut and honeysuckle. The grapes were grown on old North Fork vines, and the wine gently aged in French oak, producing a balanced, lively and soft style of Chardonnay. Recommended pairings include lobster, roast pork, summer squash, and pecorino cheese.

With rich hues of gold and patinated copper, Sonomi Kobayashi's sumptuous oil painting 'Synchronicity #11' is the perfect visual pairing for this wine. 'Synchronicity #11' and several pieces from this and Kobayashi's other series will be on display in a solo show of her work at the Brooklyn Oenology Tasting Room in Williamsburg. The show will run from Friday April 5th through mid May. To celebrate, please join us for a reception on Friday, April 12th from 7-11pm, when BOE will feature $2 off glasses and 10% off bottles of BOE 2010 Chardonnay, and complimentary snacks will be served. The reception is open to the public and all are invited.
